Postponement of Action on Persia's Plea for Intervention Criticized.

LONDON, June 17. Sharp criticism of the decision reached by the commel of the league of nations to postpone action on the pica of Fersia for defense against the Bousheviki is expressed in some quarters here, and one section of the press openiv attacks the council for its action.

Some of those present at the session of the council, it was declared, were given a bad impuression, and it is understood Prince Miras Firous. Forestan foreign minister, notwithstanding his outward acquiescence, was considerably disappointed, although he conforted himself in the confident loope that in the event Bolshevik troops did not withdraw from Persia, the league would take active steps to protect his context.

The Times' captions its editorial on the subject: "A Fompous Farce," and calls yesterday's proceeding 'humilist-ing," It says: "Malice was the cause of discredit being brought upon the league. This body (the council) was fileds. This body (the council) was fileds, ed to the furtherance of open diplomacy," complains the Pally News, but three no light on the text of the correspondence which has passed between imperialists, greedy for power and ritory."

A Copenhagen dispatch to the Herald refers to the unpublished correspondence between Persia and soviet Russia and, champloning the latter, claims Prussia has not answered the soviet government's protest against what it calls Persia's violation of international law. Giving details of these violations, the dispatch declares a pienipotentiary sent from Moscow to Teheran last year with a note laying down the principles of the soviet's attitude toward Persia was "selzed and shot by the British and the Russian anti-Botshevik forces." It is also claimed soviet consuls in Persia have been selzed and deported.
